Participant's Covenant

The last part of your application is perhaps the most important. We are asking you to sign a covenant of participation, the points of which are listed below. These are common expectations we have of every team and every team member.

1. I will make every effort to meet the deadlines for turning in my support and accept that I may be removed from the team if my payments are not made by the given dates.
2. As a team member, I will work under the leadership of the team's leaders, following the behavioral, spiritual and safety guidelines they give our team.
3. I will participate in all team building and training events over the next few months as determined by my team leaders.
4. I will not complain during the trip or cause dissension.
5. I understand that I am not to pursue any romantic interest, develop any "specific relationship" during this trip or be physical with a person of the opposite sex in any way with whom I am not married. Should I become interested in anyone during this mission, I understand that I may tell a team leader about this interest if I so choose, but that I may not discuss it with this person or with any other team member during the trip.
6. I will follow the dress code of the team and culture.
7. I will try to be sensitive to the practices, food and living situation of the culture that I am visiting, neither criticizing nor complaining.
8. I understand that I am going to serve, not to be served and thus will choose to do what is asked of me with a willing heart and a teachable spirit. I will develop and maintain a servant's attitude toward all nationals and my teammates.
9. I understand that I may be sent back to the US at my own expense if I am unable or unwilling to meet these conditions.
10. I will refrain from negative political comments or hostile discussions concerning our host country's politics.
